A MESSAGE FROM ACO:

Dear Students,

I want to take a moment to remind you how truly incredible each one of you is. Every day, you bring your unique talents, ideas, and perspective into the classroom, and it's been amazing to see how much you've grown. Remember, learning is a journey, not a race. Each challenge you face is an opportunity to become stronger, smarter, and more resilient.

I know sometimes things might feel tough, but keep pushing forward. Believe in your potential. Because, I believe in you. Your dedication, hard work and positive attitudes are inspiring. Never forget that you are capable of achieving great things, both inside and outside of the classroom.

Let's continue to support each other, strive for excellence, and keep moving towards our dreams with confidence and determination. You have so much to offer the world, so keep shining brightly!

With gratitude and excitement for all that is ahead.

With regards,
Mrs. Sindhu S Nair
(ACO-Hr.Sec.)

FIELD TRIP TO METTUR DAM (Class-XI&XII): (AUG-19)

It was an unforgettable day! Students of class X-XII went for a field trip to Mettur dam on August 9. The enormity and majesty of the dam astounded them.

Teachers explained the history and significance of the dam as it stands as one of the oldest and largest dams in India. Students were fascinated by engineering marvel of the dam. They learned how the dam controls the flow of water, generates the electricity and supports the irrigation. The massive spillways, sluice gates and the power generation units were the major places which was explored by the students. Teachers and the Students enjoyed the scenic view of the reservoir.

STORY TELLING & ELOCUTION: (AUG-23)

Stories always give wings to our imagination and take us to places beyond the boundaries of physical world. Competitions are the best way to boost the confidence and explore their talents. A story telling competition was conducted for classes 1-5. Each and every story was narrated with a moral. The oratory and presentation skills of tiny tots were outstanding.

The elocution competition is the act of public speaking that gives us self-confidence to speak in front of a large audience. The elocution competition was organized and conducted by the English dept. The Judges were Dr.J Vilma Roseline, the Vice Principal of SVVD, and Mrs. Sindhu Nair ACO of Higher Secondary of SVVD. Students from VI- VIII proved that they can create connectivity with audience through their beautiful speech.

The topics were allocated for different classes such as Education's role in success for class VI, Social media on youngsters for class VII and AI tools in our daily life for class VIII. The results of the competition were handed over to the competition committee and the details of the events were recorded. All the teachers extended their valuable co-operation to make it a grand success.

FOOD FESTIVAL - AUG-23

"Sharing good food with good friends makes it even more delicious."

A kid-friendly culinary festival offered a delightful array of nutritious food presented in an entertaining manner. Each students from I to V prepared a fruit salad, sandwich, veggie salad, and a healthy laddu respectively. Every child had a great time chopping, grinding, and combining food things with their hands.

MOTIVATIONAL SESSION FOR STUDENTS: (AUG-24)

Our prestigious institution, SVVD, hosted a student motivational session on August 24, 2024. The session opened with a song of prayer, followed by welcome address by Mrs. Rajashwari. The session's motivational speaker and guest was Mr. Soundararajan who is popularly known for his speech and debates. Mr. J Jayaseelan, the SVVD Principal, praised the speaker's admirable traits and brilliance. Mr. Soundararajan, encouraged and motivated everyone in attentiveness with his impassioned statements about the importance of parents in our lives and the necessity to limit the use of cell phones. Dr. J Vilma Roseline, Vice Principal of SVVD, offered the vote of gratitude to bring the evening to a successful conclusion.

STUDENTS' CORNER:

All day long, the man felt worn out and irritated. There was not an ounce of sleep for him. He took a stroll down an old alleyway while the moon gleamed. He noticed a young lad curled up on the side of a store, his little sister cradled in his warmth. "Why you gave him this fate?" I wailed to God. "What destiny awaits for him?" "The future of his sister?" God said with a grin "That's why I created you and why I gave you everything."
