

SRI VIJAY VIDYALAYA
MATRIC.HR.SEC.SCHOOL
PENNAGARAM ROAD, DHARMAPURI

NEWSLETTER

NOVEMBER-2024

A MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHER:

Dear Vijay Vidyalites,

God has been gracious enough to provide us this gorgeous Alma-Mater. Indeed, I am very much ecstatic and delighted to share this month's update.

November is a unique month for our Vijayans who had Vijay Olympics in Krishnagiri and Participated, Learned Sportsmanship, Team work and will to win. They exhibited individual talents and skills in the sports arena. It was a great opportunity for the students to inculcate values for life. We celebrated children's day on 14th November, wishing them well for the future.

From Hr.sec wing, we completed II-33% Exam on 11.11.2024 and immediately commenced I-50% exam on the same day. At present we are as busy as bee in planning, preparing the students for the upcoming Board Exam. Our madam Correspondent met all the Toppers from Hr.sec wing and Motivated, guided for their excellent performance in the Forthcoming Board Exam. We thank whole heartedly for her magnanimity towards students community.

Currently, teachers are strengthening the bond between parents and school through Phone calls, Mentor system and Direct meeting. Finally I would like to express my gratitude to our management for providing us wonderful ambience for Teaching and Learning.

Thank you.

With regards,
Mr. Amalraj
(HOD, Dept.of English)

GLIMPSES OF THE EVENTS

VIJAY OLYMPICS

The Vijay Olympics was a grand sporting event held on November 10 and 11, organized and hosted by SVVK. The event saw enthusiastic participation from all the students of the Vijay schools, who competed in a variety of sports, showcasing their skills, teamwork, and determination. The Olympics aimed to foster a spirit of healthy competition and physical fitness among the students, providing them with a platform to display their athletic abilities.

The Chief Guests for the occasion were Mr. Venkadesh Prabhu.M.A. (Inspector of Police, Krishnagiri.) And Mrs. R.Sindhu B.E. (Deputy Superintendents of Police) who graciously inaugurated the event and shared their inspiring words with the participants. Their presence added a sense of prestige to the event. Along with them, other dignitaries, including the Correspondent Mrs. Meena Elangoven, Mr. E.Prem Director SVVGI, Mrs. Sneha Pravin Director SVVGI, and all the Principals and Vice Principals of SVVGI, were present to witness the competition and encourage the students.

The individual championship for Under-14 Girls was awarded to Hemapriya from Class VIII of SVVD, while the Under-17 Girls championship was claimed by Shivani from Class X of SVVD. The Overall Championship for Boys was won by SVVK, and the Overall Championship for Girls was secured by SVVD. The event was a huge success, filled with energy, excitement, and the celebration of sportsmanship.

MEDICAL CAMP

NOV-16

Under the guidance of Chief Medical Officer Mr. Venkatesh MBBS, MD, the Rotary club organized a medical camp at Vijay Kids for employees of SVVD and TVMD on November 16. The camp's objectives were to improve general well-being, increase knowledge of preventative healthcare, and offer necessary health examinations. It provided free screenings and consultations, enabling employees to discuss health issues, get lifestyle guidance, and speak with medical experts. Employees offered advice on preventative healthcare, general health, eye and dental exams, and expert appointments. In order to treat health issues without taking time off, participants valued the convenience of having medical specialists visit their place of employment. At the end of the medical camp, the organizers sent out a thank-you card to the medical professionals who had volunteered. Employees were urged to use the available resources and concentrate on their health. The camp was a successful endeavor that promoted wellbeing and provided beneficial health services.

FANCY DRESS COMPETITION

I & III

NOV-22

The eagerly awaited Class 1 and 2 Fancy Dress Competition took place on November 22 at the SVVD Campus Music Hall. Mr.J. Jayaseelan, the Principal of SVVD, welcomed everyone, praising the students' creativity and encouraging them to enjoy the event. The children enthusiastically participated, showcasing their originality through colourful costumes.

The judges of the fancy dress competition, Mrs. G. Saritha (HOD, Biology Dept.) and Mrs.J. Kalpana (Commerce Dept.), carefully evaluated each participant, focusing on originality, craftsmanship, and presentation, while also considering how well they portrayed their chosen characters or themes. The competition aimed to inspire kids to challenge themselves, improve public speaking skills, and express creativity. Parents, teachers, and students worked hard preparing costumes, speeches, and presentations. The students took turns to walk on stage, showcasing their colourful and creative costumes.

SOME OF THE MOST POPULAR THEMES INCLUDED:

- Famous historical figures like Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, and Albert Einstein.
- Mythological characters such as gods and goddesses.
- Environmental heroes like trees, plants, and animals.
- Cartoon and movie characters like superheroes and fairies.

Each child gave a brief, enthusiastic speech about their costume or role. After a vibrant display of creativity, the Fancy Dress Competition for Classes 1 and 2 concluded with Dr. J Vilma Roseline, the vice principal, thanking and congratulating everyone as the kids and teachers gathered for the closing remarks.

THIRUKURAL RECITATION

III-V

NOV-22

Students from Classes 3 through 5 took part in the Thirukkural Recitation Competition at the Primary Library on November 22. Through Thirukkural, written by the poet-saint Thiruvalluvar, the event sought to introduce pupils to Tamil literature and its moral lessons. Vice Principal Dr. J Vilma Roseline gave a welcome speech to kick off the competition, emphasizing the everlasting value of Thirukkural's teachings.

Participants meticulously memorized and explained the significance of Thirukkural passages on friendship, family, and ethics as they recited them. The judges for the Thirukkural competition were Mrs. M. Girija, HOD of the Tamil Department, and Mr. Kulandai from the Tamil Department carefully evaluated each participant's understanding and interpretation of the verses, focusing on their clarity, delivery, and the depth of their insight into the moral teachings of Thirukkural.

Dr. K Kannappan, Head of Research and Development, gave a speech to wrap up the program, praising the students and highlighting Thirukkural's eternal teachings on respect and integrity. Participants and the audience were both motivated by the students' passion and commitment, which made the tournament a success.

MASS CLEANING DAY

NOV-30

On November 30, SVVD organized a Mass Cleaning Day event to promote cleanliness, environmental awareness, and team spirit among students and staff. The event was designed to encourage students to take pride in their school environment and engage in collective efforts to maintain cleanliness and hygiene.

The Mass Cleaning Day was a great success. The school campus was visibly cleaner, and students demonstrated a strong sense of responsibility and teamwork. The event not only contributed to a cleaner school environment but also raised awareness about environmental conservation and the importance of personal responsibility.

Principal Mr. J. Jayaseelan, Vice Principal Dr. J. Vilma Roseline, Dr. K. Kannappan, Head of Research and Development, along with the teachers provided briefings on the proper handling of cleaning materials and safety measures, ensuring that everyone was well-prepared for the day's activities.

STUDENTS' CORNER

THE KIND DEER AND THE HUNGRY CROW

A thirsty crow searched for water but found none.

Tired and weak, he sat on a tree, feeling hopeless.

A kind deer saw him and offered water from a nearby stream.

Grateful, the crow promised to help the deer whenever needed.

One day, hunters set a trap for the deer, but the crow warned him just in time.

MORAL: KINDNESS ALWAYS COMES BACK TO YOU.

TEACHER'S CORNER

5 MOST IMPORTANT HEALTH TIPS DURING EXAMS

1. Maintain a Study-Break Routine: Study in short, focused sessions with breaks to avoid mental fatigue. (Try 25 min study + 5 min break).
2. Prioritize Sleep: Get 7-8 hours of sleep each night to improve memory, focus, and problem-solving skills.
3. Eat Nutritious Meals: Avoid junk food. Eat fruits, nuts, and whole grains to keep your brain active and energy levels stable.
4. Stay Hydrated: Drink enough water throughout the day to maintain concentration and avoid fatigue.
5. Manage Stress: Practice deep breathing, meditation, or light exercise to reduce anxiety and stay calm.

THESE 5 SIMPLE HABITS CAN MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE IN EXAM PERFORMANCE AND OVERALL WELL-BEING.

UPCOMING EVENTS - NOVEMBER MONTH

DATE	EVENT
06.12.2024	CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION
10.12.2024	HALF YEARLY EXAMS BEGINS